RYAN

Spirit of America

Take off with host Ryan Culver as he hurtles across the country in a series of pulse-pounding adventures.

Explorer, pilot and all round velocity junkie, Ryan lives to base jump off bridges, scale 2000 foot cliffs and fly single engine Cessna's across the Atlantic (while snacking on raw bison meat).

With Spirit of America, Ryan ups the ante, meeting today's most extreme thrill seekers in the air, on land and in the water - joining them in their heart-stopping pursuits. From extreme kiteboarding, to iceberg climbing and wing suit flying wherever limits are tested, you'll find Ryan Culver. His love of adventure takes him from the ridiculous (skateboard sailing) to the sublime (commercial space travel).

Captain

Spirit of America celebrates the spark, the braun and the fearlessness that makes this country great.

So strap in and Hang on. You're in for the adventure of a lifetime.
